

Presented by

SIX
CONVERSATIONS ABOUT

Race, Culture & Equity

For Parents, Educators and Community Members

with Dr. Johnny Lake & Friends!

April 9, 16, 23, 30, May 7, 14

Tuesdays 5:30-8:30pm

Sliding Scale: $60-180 for the series
($10-30 per session - Dinner included)

Scholarships available

Build the necessary skills to work successfully with the challenges and opportunities presented by the increasing racial and cultural diversity and multicultural dynamics of our communities, schools, organizations and agencies

Register by April 1st ~ www.brownpapertickets.com

Questions, scholarship inquiries: Contact backtoback@calclane.org

Co-sponsored by

Topics will include:

Defining Identity, Race, Culture, Ethnicity and Other Terms

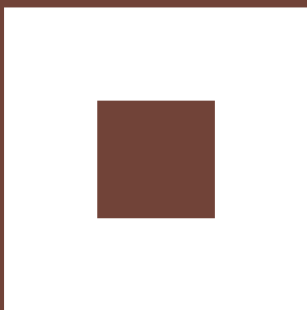

How Identity Works - Socio-Political and Socio-Historical Contexts

Understanding Stereotypes, Prejudice, Discrimination, and Racism

Learning about Advocacy, Equity, and Social Justice

Building Community - Working Beyond Race and Identity Issues

Teachers: Professional Development
Units available

"When we commit to a course of multicultural development, we commit to equity and justice, and we also commit to learn, grow and change."

-Dr. Johnny Lake

Register by April 1st

<https://RCEseries.brownpapertickets.com>