

For Anyone In The Education Field Who Is:

Exhausted?
Grieving?
Feeling like you can never do enough?

Drowning in decision fatigue?
Wondering how much longer
you can do this?

We will come together to interrupt any isolation around the trauma and overwhelm of being in this field during this time. We'll be addressing tactical strategies for sustaining ourselves and each other, while being honest about the structural and systemic challenges we face. Together we'll map a way forward through the end of this school year, and beyond. This is free of charge.
